VIGIL MECHANISM AND WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY

1. Introduction

- 1.1 The Company believes in the conduct of the affairs of its constituents in a fair and transparent manner by adopting highest standards of professionalism, honesty, integrity and ethical behaviour. Towards this end, the Company has adopted the Code(s) of Conduct for Directors and Senior Management Personnel and for the employees, which lays down the principles and standards that should govern the actions of the Company and its employees.
- 1.2 Section 177 of the Companies Act, 2013, requires every listed company and such class or classes of companies, as may be prescribed to establish a vigil mechanism for the directors and employees to report genuine concerns in such manner as may be prescribed.
- 1.3 In terms of Regulation 22 of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 ("SEBI LODR Regulations") all listed companies are required to formulate a vigil mechanism and whistle blower policy
- 1.4 Pursuant to Section 177 of the Companies Act, 2013 and Regulation 22 of SEBI LODR Regulations, this Vigil Mechanism and Whistle Blower Policy ("Policy") has been established to enable Employees Directors and Stakeholders to report instances of unethical behaviour, actual or suspected, fraud or violation of the company's code of conduct. The mechanism also provide for adequate safeguards against victimisation of the Complainant as mentioned under Clause 4 of this Policy.

2. Policy objectives

- 2.1 The Company is committed to adhere to the highest standards of ethical, moral and legal conduct of business operations and strives to developing a culture where it is safe for all Employees and Stakeholders to raise concerns about any poor or unacceptable practice and any event of misconduct without fear of punishment or unfair treatment.
- 2.2 The Vigil Mechanism & Whistle Blower Policy provides a channel to the Employees, Directors and Stakeholders to report to the management concerns about unethical behavior, actual or suspected fraud or violation of the Codes of conduct or policy.
- 2.3 The mechanism provides for adequate safeguards against victimization of Complainant to avail of the mechanism and also provide for direct access to the Chairman of the Audit Committee in Exceptional Circumstances.

2.4 The mechanism neither releases Complainants from their duty of confidentiality in the course of their work, nor is it a route for taking up a grievance about a personal situation.

2.5 The Vigil Mechanism & Whistle Blower Policy shall ensure that interests of a person who uses the mechanism are not prejudicially affected. It is a mechanism for an individual to report violations without fear of victimization.

3. Scope of the Mechanism

This Policy covers malpractices and events which have taken place/suspected to have taken place, misuse or abuse of authority, fraud or suspected fraud, violation of company rules, manipulations, negligence causing danger to public health and safety, misappropriation of monies, and other matters or activity on account of which the interest of the Company is affected.

6. Interpretation

Terms that have not been defined in this Policy shall have the same meaning assigned to them in the Companies Act, 2013 and/or SEBI Act and/or any other SEBI Regulation(s) as amended from time to time.

7. Guiding Principles

To ensure that this Policy is adhered to and that the concern will be acted upon seriously, the Company will:

- 7.1 Ensure that the Complainant and the person processing Disclosure are not victimized for doing so by way of retaliation, threat or intimidation of termination/suspension of service, disciplinary action, transfer, demotion, refusal of promotion or the like including any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct the Complainant's right to continue to perform his duties/functions including making further Disclosure;
- 7.2 Treat victimization as a serious matter including initiating disciplinary action on person(s) causing such victimization;
- 7.3 Ensure complete confidentiality.
- 7.4 Take disciplinary action, if any one destroys or conceals evidence of the Disclosure made/to be made;
- 7.5 Provide an opportunity of being heard to the persons involved especially to the Subject;
- 7.6 Take steps to minimize difficulties, which the Complainant may experience as a result of making the Disclosure. Thus, if the Complainant is required to give evidence in criminal or disciplinary proceedings, the Company will arrange for the Complainant to receive advice about the procedure, etc.

8. Violation

The following instances would constitute a violation of the Vigil Mechanism & Whistle Blower Policy:

- 8.1 Bringing to light personal matters regarding another person, which are in no way connected to the Company;
- 8.2 While it will be ensured that genuine Complainants are accorded complete protection from any kind of unfair treatment as herein set out, any abuse of this protection will warrant disciplinary action;
- 8.3 Protection under this Policy shall not be taken to mean protection from disciplinary action arising out of false or bogus allegations made by a Complainant, knowing it to be false or bogus or with a mala fide intention;
- 8.4 Complainants, who make three or more disclosures / complaints, which have been subsequently found to be mala fide, frivolous, baseless, malicious, or reported otherwise than in good faith, will be disqualified from reporting further disclosures / complaints under this Policy.

- 8.5 Complainants, who make any Disclosures, which have been subsequently found to be mala fide, frivolous or malicious, shall be liable for disciplinary action as per the Company policy.

9. Procedure for Reporting Disclosure:

- 9.1 Any Complainant associated with the Company, who observes any Unethical Practices may make a disclosure, in legible handwriting or typed, duly addressed to Ms. Kalli Purie Bhandal, Vice – Chairperson & Managing Director (“VCMD”) or Mr. Dinesh Bhatia, Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”) of the Company, as soon as possible. The Disclosure should be submitted in a closed and secured envelope or through email at whistleblower@aahtak.com.

The contact details of the VCMD / CEO are as under:

Vice Chairperson & Managing Director / Chief Executive Officer
T.V. Today Network Limited,
India Today Group Mediaplex, FC 8, Sector 16 A,
Film City, Noida -201301

Where the Complaint is against the Chairman or Vice – Chairperson or CEO of the Company, the same shall be filed with the Chairman of the Audit Committee. In such case, the powers of the Vice – Chairperson / CEO of the Company under this Policy shall be exercised by the Chairman of the Audit Committee.

The contact details of the Chairman of the Audit Committee are available and mentioned on the website of the Company. Please refer the website of the company www.aahak.in for further details.

- 9.2 Disclosure / complaint signed by the Whistle Blower should be submitted in a closed and secured envelope and should be superscribed as “Disclosure under the Vigil Mechanism and Whistle Blower Policy” or sent through email with the subject “Disclosure under the Vigil Mechanism and Whistle Blower Policy”.
- 9.3 It is strongly advised that the Complainant disclose his/ her identity in the covering letter for ensuring timely resolution of the issue and also for ensuring that adequate protection is granted to him/ her under the relevant provisions of this Policy. VCMD / CEO / Chairman of the Audit Committee as the case may be, shall detach the covering letter bearing the identity of the Complainant and process only the Disclosure.
- 9.4 Anonymous/Pseudonymous disclosure shall not be entertained by the Company as it is not possible to interview anonymous whistleblowers and it is difficult to evaluate the credibility of the allegations.
- 9.5 On receiving the Disclosure, VCMD / CEO shall make a record of the same and shall also carry out initial investigation either herself / himself or by forming a Committee of the officers of the Company or by involving any other Officer of the Company and/or an outside agency (“Investigating Authority”)

9.6 The Complainant must address the following issues, while reporting any Disclosures under this policy:

- a) The Disclosures made should bring out a clear understanding of the issue being raised.
- b) The Disclosures made should not be merely speculative in nature but should be based on actual facts.
- c) The Disclosure made should not be in the nature of a conclusion and should contain as much specific information as possible to allow proper conduct of inquiry/ investigation.

9.7 The Investigating Authority shall compile the list of Disclosures, along with their comments & views and present the final report to the VCMD / CEO for necessary decision.

10. Protection to Complainant

10.1 The Company, as a policy, condemns any kind of discrimination, harassment, victimization or any other unfair employment practice being adopted against Complainant. Complete protection will, therefore, be given to the Complainant against any unfair practice like retaliation, threat or intimidation of termination/suspension of service, disciplinary action, transfer, demotion, refusal of promotion, discrimination, any type of harassment, biased behavior or the like including any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct the Complainant's right to continue to perform his duties/functions including making further Disclosure. The Company will take steps to minimize difficulties, which the Complainant may experience as a result of making the Disclosure.

10.2 A Complainant may report any violation of clause 10.1 to the Chairman of the Audit Committee, who shall investigate into the same and recommend suitable action to the management.

10.3 The identity of the Complainant shall be kept confidential to the extent possible and permitted under law.

10.4 In the event of the identity of the Complainant being disclosed, the Audit Committee is authorized to initiate appropriate action as per extant regulations against the person or agency making such disclosure. The identity of the Complainant, if known, shall remain confidential to those persons directly involved in applying this Policy.

10.5 Any other Employee assisting in the said investigation or furnishing evidence shall also be protected to the same extent as the Complainant.

10.6 Provided however, that the Complainant before making a complaint has reasonable belief that an issue exists and he has acted in good faith. Any complaint not made in good faith as assessed as such by the Audit Committee shall be viewed seriously and the Complainant shall be subject to disciplinary action as per the rules/certified standing orders of the Company.

11. Investigation

- 11.1 The VCMD / CEO are duly authorized to oversee any Disclosures reported under this policy.
- 11.2 The Disclosure made shall be supported by adequate information to support an investigation.
- 11.3 Any inquiry/ investigation conducted against any Subject shall not be construed by itself as an act of accusation and shall be carried out as a neutral fact finding process, without presumption of any guilt.
- 11.4 The inquiry/ investigation shall be conducted in a fair manner and provide a reasonable opportunity for hearing to the affected party and a written report of the findings should be prepared for submission to the VCMD / CEO / Chairman of Audit Committee.
- 11.5 The Investigating Authority shall have right to call for and examine any information/document of the Company, as may be deemed necessary for the purpose of conducting inquiry/ investigation under this policy.
- 11.6 The investigation shall be completed normally within 90 days of the receipt of the disclosure and is extendable by such period as the Audit Committee deems fit.
- 11.7 Investigating Authority having conflict of interest in relation of any disclosure / complaint shall disclose his / her interest forthwith and shall not deal with the disclosure.
- 11.8 Where the results of the inquiry/ investigation highlight that the allegations made against the Subject are eventually dismissed as non-tenable, the investigation shall be deemed to be closed.

12. Subjects

- 12.1 All Subjects shall be duly informed about the disclosures of unethical practice(s) made against them at the commencement of the formal inquiry/ investigation process and shall have opportunities for providing explanations during the course of the inquiry/ investigation process.
- 12.2 Subject(s) shall have a duty to co-operate with the Investigating Authority.
- 12.3 No Subjects shall directly/ indirectly interfere with the investigation process, till the completion of the inquiry/ investigation.
- 12.4 The Subjects shall not withhold, destroy or tamper with any evidence, nor shall influence, coach, coerce, threaten or intimidate any witness.
- 12.5 During the course of the inquiry/investigation process, all Subjects shall have a right to consult any person(s) of their choice, other than Investigating Authority and/or members of the Audit Committee and/or the Complainant, at their own costs and to represent them in such investigation proceedings.

12.6 All Subjects shall have a right to be informed about the results of the investigation process and shall be so informed by after the completion of the inquiry/ investigation process.

12.7 All Subjects shall be given an opportunity to respond to the findings of the inquiry/ investigation as contained in the investigation report. No allegation of wrongdoing against any Subject shall be considered as tenable, unless the allegations are duly supported by valid evidence in support of the allegation.

13. Reporting of findings

13.1 All instances of Complaints / Disclosures noted as part of this Policy, including results/status of all the inquiries/investigations made against such Disclosures shall be documented and a final report shall be prepared and presented before the Audit Committee on quarterly basis. The report shall be presented by the VCMD / CEO or any officer of the Company as authorized by VCMD / CEO, highlighting the following:

- a) The nature of reported Disclosures made under this policy and the proposed action thereon;
- b) The status of prior and current period reported Disclosures and the action taken thereon; and
- c) Results/status of any investigations/enquiries with reference to the Disclosures.

13.2 It is clarified that any disciplinary or corrective action initiated against the Subject as a result of the findings of an investigation pursuant to this Policy shall conform to the applicable personnel or staff code of conduct and disciplinary procedures.

13.3 In case the Subject is the Chairman or the Vice – Chairperson / CEO of the Company, the Chairman of the Audit Committee, after examining the Disclosure, shall forward the Disclosure to other members of the Audit Committee, if deemed fit. The Audit Committee shall appropriately and expeditiously investigate the Disclosure.

13.4 If the report of investigation is not to the satisfaction of the Complainant, the Complainant has the right to report the event to the appropriate legal or investigating agency.

13.5 A Complainant who makes false allegations of unethical & improper practices or about alleged wrongful conduct of the Subject to the VCMD / CEO or the Audit Committee shall be subject to appropriate disciplinary action in accordance with the rules, procedures and policies of the Company.

14. Access to Chairman of the Audit Committee

The Complainant shall have right to access Chairman of the Audit Committee directly in Exceptional Circumstances and the Chairman of the Audit Committee is authorized to prescribe suitable directions in this regard.

15. Secrecy/Confidentiality

The Complainant, the Subject, VCMD / CEO, Members of Audit Committee and any other officer/employee/person involved in the process shall:

- a) maintain complete confidentiality/secretcy of all matters under this Policy;
- b) discuss the matter only to the extent and/or with those persons as required for the purpose of completing the process and investigations under this Policy;
- c) not keep the papers related to any matter under this Policy, unattended anywhere at any time;
- d) keep the electronic mails/files protected.

16. Retention of Document

All Disclosures made by the Complainant in writing or documents obtained during the course of inquiry/ investigation, along with the results of investigation relating thereto, shall be retained by the Company for a minimum period of seven (7) years or such other period as specified by any other law in force, whichever is more.

17. Amendment

The Company reserves its right to amend or modify this Policy, in whole or in part, at any time, without assigning any reason whatsoever. The revised Policy shall be uploaded on the Company's website and on the intranet portal of the Company as and when amended
